Consideration for Partnership with Parents during Coronavirus

Communicate

Open and clear information on the setting contingency plans and appropraite home learning activities

Comment

Invite families to provide comments/observations on their child for the child's profile

Connect

Provide advice and support to build parental confidence either as a group or on a one to one basis

Create

Be inventive and consider how to create positive memories together and share events

Request feedback

review and ammend

- Identify how to gain feedback on specific aspects of partnership with parents strategies
- consider the responses and how they can influence changes for improvement